Johnnie was known for his positive nature and his love for baseball. He would talk baseball to anyone who would listen. He made a positive impact on everyone that he was around. Johnnie had a very strong faith and was actively involved in his churches in Homosassa Springs, and Lakeview

Terrace. Johnnie worked for Sears for over 40 years and moved his family over 10 times, which made for lifelong friendships and unfathomable family values. He treasured his annual vacations to Florida and Christmas get-togethers, where he was surrounded by all of his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. His legacy for love of family, and the importance of "... just say thank you.." will be carried forward by all his family and friends. In keeping with Johnnie and Barbara's wishes there will be a joint Celebration of Life at Lakeview Terrace on May 7th. There will also be a joint memorial in Pittsburgh for both Johnnie and Barbara at a later date. Lakeview Terrace has been an incredible place for them.
