

Jonathan "Jon" Eulett

December 3, 1961 - July 25, 2025

Jonathan "Jon" L. Eulett, 63, passed away on July 25, 2025. He was born in Galion, Ohio on December 3, 1961 to loving parents Gerald and Goldie Eulett. Jon was a Christian and found a deep comfort in Christ in his last months. He was also a member of the National Rifle Association, and took great pride in his gun collection. Jon enjoyed playing the guitar, and in his younger years he even played bass in the rock band Pinhook. He loved shooting, grilling, restoring cars and shredding rubber, welding, birdwatching, writing poetry, and his favorite pastime was mowing the lawn with a cold one. Overall, Jon was a remarkable jack-of-all-trades that could fix any problem. He loved sixties music, Mark Twain, and his favorite poem was "There once was a man from Nantucket." He grew up in Ohio and moved to Florida in his early 20's. Jon was a servicial, intelligent, yet laid-back man who loved his children and had a special fondness for his grandparents. He is survived by his children: Ian Robert Eulett and Valerie Joyce Eulett of Leesburg, Florida; brothers: Gregory Eulett of Bushnell, Florida, Terry Eulett of Rapid City, South Dakota; sisters: Christina Wilkins of Washington Court House, Ohio, Deborah Olsen of Bushnell, Florida and many loving nieces, nephews, cousins, and extended family members. He is preceded in death by his parents, Gerald and Goldie Eulett. In lieu of charity, please make donations to his family to help with funeral expenses. “ Jon was one of the most kind and gentle people I have ever met. In the short time I knew him, he never had one bad word to say about anyone, or even a bad word to say in general.

I loved how when you would be having a conversation and his response always started with "Well"...

Everyone here at Boon Edam loved him and loved working with him.

I'm going to miss you friend.
