Obituary of Joseph Amaral, Jr.

Joseph D. Amaral, Jr, 83, of Wildwood, FL, died unexpectedly Friday, January 13, 2017. He was born in Fall River, MA and moved to Wildwood, FL from Swansea, MA in 1998. He retired from the United States Navy as a Chief Petty Officer, after serving 22 years. Following his retirement from the service, he received an accounting degree from Southeastern Massachusetts University and worked as a Bookkeeper. He enjoyed travel, golf, playing cards, bowling and fishing.

He was preceded in death by his wife Catherine E. Amaral, with whom he had been married for 52 years, and a brother Henry Amaral. He is survived by two daughters, Sylvia (Bill) Panebianco of Fort Myers, FL, Diane (Harold) Eastwood of Swansea, MA, and one son, Joseph (Laurie) Amaral and granddaughter, Savanna all of Seekonk, MA. One sister, Alice Oliveira of Dighton, MA, and one brother, Lawrence (Vivian) Amaral of Somerset, MA. At the time of his death, he was residing with his loving companion, Karen Nichols. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church, Wildwood, FL on Monday, Jan 23, 2017 at 11:00 am. Burial will be at Florida National Cemetery, Bushnell, FL. The family requests in lieu of flowers, that donations be made to the Wounded Warriors Fund.

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. Your father was a good man and he was always great to us grove kids growing up. I remember him talking about the navy from time to time and catching a glimpse of some things he had gotten when in. So can say being a sailor myself . You will be missed but never forgot Chief. Fair Winds And Following Seas. We shall meet again at Davys Locker.
