

Joseph A. Dangler

October 27, 1940 - February 10, 2019

Obituary for Joseph A. Dangler

Joseph A. Dangler was born October 27, 1940 to Antoinette Ciambrone and John Matthew Dangler, in Long Beach, New Jersey and died February 10, 2019 in Leesburg at the age of 78. He was a member of Morrison United Methodist Church. He served his country in the United States Air Force. He was married to Bonnie J. Davis in 1991 until his death. He worked and retired after 20 years with Electron Machine, as a Sales Representative. During this time he and his wife traveled to many different countries and enjoyed learning about other cultures. He was an avid aviation fan and was proud to have his pilot's license. His most passionate hobby was photography; he enjoyed taking photography classes and taking wildlife pictures. His favorite pictures to take were of his family, especially his grandchildren. He is survived by his wife Bonnie J. Dangler; step-children Bradley Davis (Benito), Jennifer Graves, and Laurie Davis-Welch. Also, his three grandchildren Brittany, Savannah, and Wesley, and three great-grandchildren, Amelia, Parker, Evangeline. He is also survived by his brother Harry Dangler (Ann), Venice, Florida and his sister Marjorie Faulhaber, New Jersey. A memorial service will be held at Morrison United Methodist Church in Leesburg at 10:00 am on Friday, February 22, 2019, followed by a small reception and a military service at 1:30 at Florida National Cemetery in Bushnell.

In lieu of flowers the family is asking for donations to be made to Cornerstone Hospice in Joseph A. Dangler's name.

“ So sorry to hear about Joe. He was such a nice man and even though I hadn't seen him in the last few years, I always enjoyed visiting with him when we'd play bridge at your house or somewhere else.
My thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
