Obituary of Joseph Jarvo

Joseph A Jarvo, 81 years young, passed peacefully with his family by his side in Florida on April 20th, 2013.

Beloved husband of Anne Jarvo (Anne Marie Costello, nee, Grobowski), and the late Marion Jarvo (nee, Laundrie).

A life-long Cornwall native, Joseph's long and fruitful life was defined by his dedication to his family, friends and his love of sports. His 41 year career began at Howard Smith Paper Mill in 1950 as an apprentice, and culminated with his retirement as the superintendent of the pulp mill in 1991. His passion for sports started at a very young age where even as a teenager, he played in the senior fastball league as a second baseman and was inducted to the Cornwall Sports Hall of Fame in 1982. His quote of "give no quarter ask no quarter" defined his determination to support his team to victory after victory, and his skills had him selected 8 times to the league all-star team. He also played several years of intermediate hockey for the OCOT and Howard Smith teams.

As a young man, he developed what would become a lifelong passion for golf and was essentially a "founding father" of one of the fledgling golf courses near his hometown. Over his working years, Joseph continually improved his game and upon his retirement pursued this passion in Canada all summer and in Florida in the winter.

His winter respite at "The Villages" in Florida were some of Joseph's greatest times, where he played golf, was a member of the "Water Buffalos" water aerobics team and socialized with his community. His quiet moments were spent discussing his review of world events with his wife, playing sudoku, and crosswords.

Joseph was blessed with a full and love-filled life.

Joseph is survived by his loving wife Anne, children James A. Jarvo, J. Allan Jarvo, Brenda Reinkeluers (Christiphor), Susan Sabourin (Daniel), grandchildren Jonathan, Justin, Kristiane, Alexander, Marie Josee, Chantal, Erich, Isabel, Marc and Carly, and great grandchildren, Cameron, Jayden, Lilah, and Lilly. Step-children Celine Costello Daly, Roger Costello.

Joseph has requested that no services be held. His ashes will be interred at St Lawrence cemetery near his hometown of Cornwall at a later date. Memorial contributions to the Heart Association will be appreciated.

“ Jimmy, Allan, Brenda and Susan, We just learned about your dad's passing and wanted you to know that our thoughts are with you and great memories of your dad live on. Tammy especially remembers summer days sitting by the pool, everytime your dad walked by he would tease her by tickling the back of her kneck until she shouted "Mr Jarvo" to him. It has her smiling even today, just thinking about this memory and many others. We will remember his kindness always! Love Tammy and Shelley "Johnson"
