“ Dearest, Mr. Pesce, I know you were a good person made of strong moral and ethical values. Your daughter is a shining example of what a father like you is capable of. She was the first person I met when I started my career in Florida, November 1994. Her warmth drew me in immediately; her character made me love her and she has been one of my dearest friends ever since. She is honest and trustworthy. She is always there when I need her. She stood by me at my wedding and now is godmother to my daughter. I hope my daughter grows up to have the same strong values and warm heart that your daughter has. I will never let Lori go. I will watch over Lori and always be there for her. Thank you for giving me such a wonderful friend. My deepest sympathy to your friends and family. They are all in my prayers. Yours Truly, Maria
