“ It's only been a few days since you've been gone dear friend and cousin, Joe Price. I will miss you so very much. I think about you when I go outside and the wind blows in my face or I see the name of Chicopee Georgia. I will always remember when you would make me laugh or when I needed you, you would be there for me. Or when you would call to check every year at Christmas time and when you introduced me to the Price Ancestry Book.. .What a beautiful soul you were. For that and many other reasons I will miss you dearly. I have no doubt that you are looking out for me and your family in heaven.. There is a void in my heart until we meet again. Love you forever my dear cousin and childhood play friend!
