“ My condolences to Cousin Joe's family. He was 20yrs. my senior and I didn't meet him until later in life. He was always on the move. I know at one point he was stationed in Sasebo, Japan with the NSA listening to the Russians during the Cold War. He called me once while I was stationed in Pearl Harbor, Hawaii. His Mom and Dad were my Godparents. And he was interested in the genealogy of the Saukas name.

“ Although the Saukas family has grown apart over the years, I remember my cousin Joe visiting my parents when he occasionally came back to Grand Rapids MI. Joe was 13 years older than me so we didn't connect on all levels, but I always had a great sense of respect for this man who worked in our nations capital. My deepest sympathy and prayers goes out to the family of my distant cousin "Joey".
