“ Aunt Gloria, Joe, Irene, Linda & Jimmy, We are very sorry to hear of the loss of Uncle Joe. We will always remember celebrating Thanksgiving and Christmas with you all when we were younger, especially Uncle Joe on the piano, my Dad on the guitar, and the rest of us dancing to the Alley Cat. He was a great man. Love, Nancy and kids

“ Gloria, Joey, Irene, Linda and Jimmy, So many years go by and then we are reminded of friends from home. I am sad to hear that your husband and father has left you, but I trust that he is with God and still looking out for each of you and your families. I will add him and each of you to my prayer list asking for peace while you greive. The older I get, the more I realize how special Parish Lane was to me. In fact, memories of our childhood came up on Halloween as I was out "Trick or Treating" with my children. We were truly part of a great, big family back then. My thoughts and prayers are with you. “ Gloria and family Sorry to hear of Joe's passing. You may not remember that he teased me because he was one day older than I am. He was a great guy. I guess Joey, Irene, and Linda know that Barbara died in Mar 2003. I have remarried but still living in NC.
