“ Dear Mr. & Mrs. Shaffer, We are so sorry for your loss. I knew Joey because I work part-time at Umatilla Market. He was the sweetiest, young man. It was apparent he loved animals, as he always brought Verna's dog a bone or just stopped by to see HIM. But, he always had nice things to say to me and to Verna. My husband always enjoyed his trips to Ace as everyone was very nice, but Joey was especially helpful and very friendly. He and I often spoke of the Bears and Deer in Paisley, as we also live in Paisley. HE WILL BE MISSED. We are also members of First Baptist Church of Umatilla and we will pray for you and your family. Joey is with our Lord and we will all see him again one day. Sincerely, Janet and Baxter Smithey
