

Joseph Gregory Shuster

March 10, 1940 - April 1, 2016

Obituary of Joseph Shuster

Joseph Gregory Shuster was a loving husband, father, grandfather, and successful architect. He passed away on April 1, 2016 in Summerfield. Joe was loving, kind, thoughtful, and hard-working. Born on March 10, 1940, to Francis and Roselyn Shuster, he was the seventh of nine children. Joe graduated from Benedictine High School in Cleveland, Ohio in 1958, and from Kent State University with a bachelor's degree in architecture in 1965 where he was a member of Epsilon Delta Rho. As a long-time resident of Ohio, he was a member of the Garfield Heights Knights of Columbus, where he served as the youngest Grand Knight in the council (1970-71). He was also a long standing member of the Mentor Rotary, the Mentor Chamber of Commerce, the Cleveland Engineering Society, and the Ohio Architects Society.

Joe is survived by his wife of 29 years, Myra; his children, Joe (Stephanie), Janet Herz (Jeff), Susan Carraher (John), David, Deric (Paige), Scott (Amy), Philip (Holly); his step-children, Bill Wilder (Suzanne) and Betsy Guiragossian (Sam), his 17 grandchildren; his brothers Lawrence (Ruby) and B. James (Nancy), his sister Irene Spisak (Edward), his first wife, Patricia Livak; and his loyal dog Muffy Anne.

A celebration of life will be held on Wednesday, April 6, 2016, at 11:00AM at Beyer Funeral Home Chapel, 134 US 441, Lady Lake, Florida.
