Obituary of Joseph Taylor

Joseph A. (Joe) Taylor, of Bushnell, FL, went to be with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, on October 15, 2016. He leaves behind his wife, Marcia Taylor, his daughter, Kathy Taylor of Plainfield, IN and her son, James Shields (Kami) and their boys, Nick, Alex and Jacob in Indiana. He also leaves 3 step-children: Gary Long, Terri Tramm and Sherri Cureton and step-grandsons, Blayne, Shayne and Jeremy.

Joe loved family, friends and life. Throughout his life he had many interests, including farming with his family in Indiana, attending church, riding a Goldwing motorcycle, stock car racing, NASCAR, trail riding horses, fishing, collecting antique tractors, baling hay, driving more than 2 million miles for Yellow Freight Lines (work) and traveling on vacations around the country, including Hawaii, Alaska, the Northwest, the Northeast, Canada, Bahamas and Cancun, Mexico. He held membership in the Florida Flywheelers, Florida Cattlemen's Association, and he attended First Baptist Church, Bushnell.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Lane Purcell Hospice House, 2452 CR 526E Sumterville, FL 33585.
