“Joyce and Frank were among the first residents in Brookhaven Village. She was a great resource in helping to blend the early resolutions with the present needs for changes in the resolutions.”

“I had the pleasure and good fortune of spending the last couple of Summers visiting with Joyce when she came to visit her daughter in Ulster County. Just taught me a few things in life like no one has ever taught me before. Joyce taught me about strength, patience, and a love of life. You see I was a regular fixture in the home in which she spent some of her Summers. I was a caretaker of her daughter's grandmother.
My dear Joyce the Lord above has you and all of his young children and beloved family around him. May your journey be loving and beautiful like you are. Yellow is the color of friendship and I was glad to have you as a friend.”

“ Joyce and I had much to share during our phone visits and lunch gatherings. We were both interested in the genealogy of our Italian heritage and shared information with each other. She and Frank loved to travel across our country as did Bob and I. We would talk on end of the places we were privileged to visit. And best of all, we would share our faith, so I know exactly where she is, with our Lord, happy and free of her pain. She was a dear cousin, I shall miss her, but I know she is in a much better place.
