

Joyce Marie Messina

July 28, 1947 - April 19, 2024

Joyce Messina passed away April 19, 2024 in The Villages, Florida with her husband and sister by her side.

Joyce was born in Medford, Massachusetts, July 28, 1947 and was the first daughter of James Rudolph and Lillian (Pilato) Rudolph. Joyce was educated at St. Clement grammar and high schools. She married Francis Messina, retired employee of The Villages, October 4, 1970. She was a Certified Pharmacy Technician for several years at Walgreens Pharmacy. Joyce was very proud to be a Villager since 2004. Along with her many destinations, to include Meredith, New Hampshire, Joyce enjoyed spending time by her husband's side relaxing around Lake Sumter Landing.

Joyce is survived by her loving and devoted husband Frank; her daughters Kristin

Messina and Lacey (Messina) Campbell and husband Corey Campbell; triplet grandchildren Brody, Allie and Lux Campbell her best friend and sister Carol Silva and sister-in-law Elizabeth (Messina) Mc Stay and husband Peter Mc Stay.

The family deeply appreciates the superior care provided by Cornerstone Hospice.

Tribute Wall

BR

“ Uncle Frank, we are so sorry for Aunt Joyce’s passing. Chris is right; she was a hoot to be around. We will remember her and smile at the good times. Love always, Brendan, Kate, Tommy and Erin

Brendan - May 04, 2024 at 04:03 PM

CM

“ Uncle Frank, we’re so sorry to hear of Auntie Joyce’s passing. We’ll remember her always as the fun aunt. She wouldn’t have it any other way.
Love, Chris and Lisa

Chris McStay - April 29, 2024 at 01:22 PM

JD

“ A dear, sweet, caring and thoughtful lady who never complained nor seemed negative about anything that life put in her path. Her path is clear now and leads to heavenly peace. She will be missed but live on in the hearts and minds of those who knew her.

John Dew - April 24, 2024 at 09:15 AM