“ To Judy's Loved Ones, Judy shared a room w/my Mother @ Will's Eye Hospital. They both had eye cancer & their surgery was on the same day. When I visited my Mother, I was so thankful that she had such a wonderful roommate. Cancer created a wonderful friendship! My Mother & Judy corresponded for years. One year their check-up was on the same day & we all visited again. How happy we were! My Mother would pass Judy's letters on to me. I saw the friendship had become a special one. Over the years I was diagnosed w/breast cancer. My Mother kept Judy informed & Judy would always have kind words. Recently I wrote to Judy supporting her in whatever decision she made. It is often a difficult time when everyone doesn't agree as to what's best. The only one who can decide that is the patient. Judy made the right decision. It is difficult to accept the decision when we know how it will end. I know Judy loved life & lived it to the fullest! May loving memories live on in each of you.

“ To Michael and all of the Kingston family and friends, our family wants you to know that we are so sorry. We know there's nothing anyone can really say to make it any better. Just know that all of you are in our prayers many times, each day and night. Our spirits do not end. The road does not end. And most of all...LOVE does not end. Love wins in the end. With time, we pray that the good and precious memories will begin to replace the grief you feel. We each deal with grief differently because every relationship is unique. We never met Judith, but we know she was, and is, a unique and very special Lady. All our love and sincere sympathy, Gene, Vickie, Joy & Shelley Fowler
