“ Judy was my best friend in High School, first at St. Mary's Academy and then at Forster Collegiate. I was immediately attracted to her exuberance and love of life. We sang and danced together; we double-dated; and I helped her through her agonizing math homework so she could laugh again. Even last June, when we met, her vitality was barely diminished although at that time she needed oxygen 24/7. A large part of my heart is numb with sadness and loss. I guess God needed some help with His heavenly choir and He simply chose the best there was at making music. My husband, Jim, and I wish to express our deepest sympathy to Joe and to their family. May all the wonderful memories you have of Judy see you through this most difficult time.

“ Seeing your beautiful smiling face next to this condolence makes me smile knowing that you are gracing Heaven above with your beautiful voice and presence. I don't remember living upstairs to you while our house was being built, but my Mom always treasured the time she had with her 2 girls that she adored so much - Judy and Donna. My thoughts and prayers are with you Joe, Greg, DJ and family as you go through this very difficult time. Also to all of Judy's siblings, you are in my prayers daily. And Pat - you are included in my prayers - you were such a good friend to Judy, and this is a tremendous loss to you. ❤️ Judy - we will love and miss you forever! ❤️ Cheryll and Bob (Werstein) Hogue

“ Dear Joe, Greg, Don and families, I have been receiving messages of grief and love for Judy from all my children who have lost their sweet aunt, Sarah, Beki, Joanna, Daniel and Mary Beth. I have heard from many of our cousins, all the children of siblings of mom and dad. All remember Judy's thrilling voice which brought so much joy to occasions. They remember her joie de vivre, her strong spirit and her generous heart. I will miss our weekly phone calls, our laughs together, our sharing of memories growing up together, and visiting over the years. Judy became more than a sister, a true friend in adult years. I live now with immense gratitude in my heart for all our life together, and for our last precious visit most recently. May our memories and faith comfort us all. The song which is Judy will continue to sing in our hearts.

“ To all of those who loved my Aunt Judy, family and friends, I offer my deepest love and condolences for the loss of her physical presence in our lives. Uncle Joe, DJ, Greg, I know how hard this will be for you. I will be sending prayers to you as you adjust to this void. And yet, I know that she is free and at one with God and while we mourn the loss, we celebrate a life well lived and continued life beyond this world. I love you Aunt Judy!
