“ *John,
I am so sorry to hear about the passing of your wife, Judy.
I lost my wife way too early and it took a long time to for me and my family to recover....but we did. And you will too but it takes time. Our prayers and God's grace will help temper the loss you are feeling right now. Your family will be there for you too. May God bless you all.*

“ John, Thank you for loving Mom unconditionally. She was so proud of you and you brought her so much joy. I know you will miss her! She was kind, gracious, loyal, a hard worker and always made the best of what life brought her. She was always glamorous and ready for the latest fashion trends! We love you. “ John - We know how well you loved mom and took care of her in life and now death. She was a beautiful mom, hard worker, friend, wife , listener and now I will strive to be more of those things as I will always remember who she was and the things she taught me. Thank you for loving her so well and I will commit to pray for God's mercy and grace in the following days.
