“ I was the youngest sister to her, we shared many laughs and pranks together. She was more like a mother to me than a sister. I will miss her greatly. So sorry I wasn't able to go see her during her last days. But my health would not allow me to go. You may be gone, but will never be forgotten. Love you sister.

Those we love don't go away, they walk beside us every day. Unseen unheard but always near, so loved, so missed, so very dear “ Remembering Mom and all the good times and sad times we shared together, thankful for her lifelong Christian guidance and advice that made me the person I am today. Honored to have been holding her precious hand as she passed from this world into heaven with a smile on her face. Rejoicing that there is no more pain, suffering, and heartache.

Mom, I thought of you today but that is nothing new I thought about you yesterday and days before that too. I think of you in silence, I often speak your name, all I have are memories, and your picture in a frame. Your memory is a keepsake from which I'll never part. God has you in his arms, I have you in my heart.
