“ Aunt Julia was always like a mother to me and my cousins. I know we all have our favorite memories of her from when we were very young to present. She will be greatly missed, but now joins her beloved parents, brothers and sisters in heaven. They are probably cooking, dancing or playing cards. I love you Aunt Julia, always!

“ Aunt Julia was a kind soul, with the warmest heart. She reminded me a lot of Grandma Pesce. Though I am happy that she lived a long happy life, I will truly miss her. I am positive that our relatives who have passed on passionately welcomed her into heaven, especially Aunt Theresa. I have many fond memories of Aunt Julie the first one is her baked goods, the second memory is everytime we would see Aunt Julia she would slip you money, not a dollar, but $20 or $50, then she would say "Sssshhhh don't tell anyone"! I know my sisters and cousins know what I am talking about (;-) , and her love for animals. I could go on about how wonderful Aunt Julia was, but there is not enough space. You were a beautiful person and a "great" Great Aunt! Rest in peace. I love you Jackie!
