“ This little note is to dear June,...in heaven now. Three weeks ago we talked on the phone. You were an amazing lady. You knew that your time here was slipping away very fast, and you were so determined to make plans for Charlie and your children. You wanted to make sure loose ends were tied up and everything was in order. During the past few years you endured much uncomfortable suffering, but you kept going on, even hosting an occasional MahJongg gathering. Dear June, I will always treasure your friendship and admire your good spirits. Love and prayers to you, special friend. Love, Nancy

“ "RIP"....sweet lady! The pain and the fear are over. June was a lot of fun and both my wife & I enjoyed our time with her. June and I used to tease each other about getting older, and who had more things wrong. Sadly...she always won that question. So.....farewell and enjoy the long sleep!
