“ So many memories of both parents over the years. All the sleepovers, the forever phone calls, and boy crazy times. How they dealt with all of us i will never know. I will always remember bowling with them and the prize money in coins. Im sorry i didnt get to see them when they came to visit over the years. Cherish your memories of them and remember they are always with you.

“ Karen's most favorite sayings were "you'll do what I say, how I say, when I say and shut your mouth" "wait till your father comes home" and also "madder than a wet hen" and when we wanted to drive to school, she told us "No, I pay school taxes for you to ride the bus and you will ride the bus". The only time we were allowed to drive was during finals week.

Many times Kim and I would try to argue with her when it was time to come in for the night from an exhausting day of playing outside with our friends, not that it worked, but we had to try, She would always tell us "I don't care what the other kids are doing, your my kids and its time to come in"

Thanks Mom and Dad for being the best parents any daughters could ask for. We will miss you both always.
