

Karen Ann (Naraine) Lee

July 2, 1967 - December 22, 2020

Karen Naraine Lee was a beloved mother, wife, daughter, sister and friend she brought so much light to all those around her and gave everyone the benefit of the doubt.

She was born in a small town by the name of Georgetown Guyana and came to live in the states in the late 1990s with her husband George and daughter Rebecca. She had a passion for fashion and worked in the clothing industry in Manhattan, New York.

Her favorite phrase was "dress to impress yourself not anyone else". She was beloved by all who knew her and always lended a hand to those who needed it.

Her shining personality, smile, laughter and presence will be truly missed. Rest in paradise until we all meet again sweet angel.

Online condolences may be left at www.beyersfuneralhome.com

Arrangements entrusted to Beyers Funeral Home and Crematory, Leesburg, FL.

Tribute Wall

MM

“ Deepest heartfelt from us. Thinking of you all. From Bernice McCoon & Simone Michelle Hosein.

Michelle McCoon - January 10, 2021 at 10:31 AM

KS

“ I will always remember Karen as a good wife and mother. She was an amazing cook and loved entertaining especially at Christmas, her signature dishes were Garlic pork and Pepper pot for me.

Karen embraced fashion, she really was a fashionista with class and grace. Her presence will be missed with her smiling face.

Becky your mom was a special woman and no one can take her place. You'll find a peace of mind when you remember her smiling face. She's an angle now; she flies high and above the rest, And in your heart always and forever she will be the best, so although you cannot see her and you wish she could be there remember she will always hear you and will always care.

George hold on the the happy memories and the good time for there were many. She is now your guardian angel for the rest of your life.

"K" I do not weep for you because you are not gone, you just simply moved on. When God reached down and collected your soul you simply reached up knowing it was time to go.

*Love you!
Kim*

Kim Stein - January 01, 2021 at 09:24 PM

JN

“ This is her mother missing her one true love and daughter especially tonight. I love you Angel. 🥰🥰🥰🥰🥰🥰🥰

Janette Naraine - December 31, 2020 at 11:58 PM

JN

“ As the Momma of Karen-Ann there's not one bad thing I can say about her. We have a lot in common like cooking, a beautiful home, dressing to impress 😊 and loving our family and friends. Whatever Kar put her mind to she did it, as Frankie says, her way. I miss you so very much my darling daughter but you will always be with me. No one can love you the way I do. Enjoy all your family and friends but most of all Brandon... until we meet again. Your Momma

Janette Naraine - December 31, 2020 at 01:12 PM