Obituary of Katherine Goudzwaard

Katherine "Kay" Goudzwaard, 81, of Leesburg, FL went home to be with the Lord after a long illness on February 11, 2012. Kay was born August 17, 1930 in Grand Rapids, MI and was a graduate of Calvin College in Grand Rapids. Her lifelong passion was music and she was an accomplished organist and pianist as well as choir director. A Presbyterian, she made close friends through her church and in Bible study classes. For several years she owned Kay's Key West Aloe in Cincinnati. In 1993 her husband Maurice "Moe" retired and they moved to Florida.

She is survived by: her son Alan (Vicki) Goudzwaard of Dothan, AL; daughters: Lynne Goudzwaard of Leesburg, FL and Mary Kay Meier of Cincinnati; 4 grandchildren: Stephanie (Scott) Roark of Cincinnati, Daniel Meier of Columbus, OH, and Christine Meier and Thomas Meier of Cincinnati; great grandson Harlan Roark of Cincinnati; sisters: Madeline Van Goor and Barbara Van Dyke both of Grand Rapids, MI. She was preceded in death by her husband Moe in 2006.
