“ Dear Family of Kathy,

I was a tax client of Kathy's for many years when I lived in Cedar Rapids, IA. I always enjoyed my meetings with her because we always had wonderful discussions beside the boring business ones! She was so supportive of me as well, which I always appreciated. I will remember her fondly because she was so sweet. I am truly sorry for your loss, may she rest in peace.

“ To the loved ones of Kathy Frey...

While I didn't have the pleasure of knowing Kathy, I have been fortunate enough to work with Don for several years. I know that he loved her and adored her more than anything in the world; anytime he mentioned her, his face would light up. I know that she was a beloved wife, mother, and grandmother, and I can only imagine the sadness, grief and emptiness that comes with her passing for those who were closest to her. I feel certain that her love, spirit, and kindness will continue to live on through the many lives she touched.

My most sincere thoughts and condolences to Don and his entire family. Know that you are surrounded by love and support.

Thank you Brandy for your kind words and for the support you have provided to me in these last few months. You stepped up and took on a heavy load so I could spend time with Kathy. I won't forget that...and I know Kathy feels the same way because we talked about it many times. God Bless you...
