“ Make Cassie in Texas this is very a short time through my brother Jerry but we made a definite connection because we both love to fish. Jerry took us fishing together and it was a great day. I got to see her after that when she came to Florida to visit her daughter. With a very short friendship we connected. And I certainly miss her not being the rest of my life. She loved her family. And I got to meet some of them. And I appreciate that. I'm so sorry that she is gone so soon after I have met her but you have loved her forever and your loss is greater. God bless you all in peace be with her
