“ Our deepest condolences and heartfelt thoughts are with the Lamberti Family. Kathy came into my life seven years ago and every moment we spent together or spoke for hours on the phone, has been a sheer blessing for me. Her generosity, love, faith and sincere friendship was truly a treasure. I have been blessed to have Kathy in my life. The closeness we shared was unmeasurable. God Bless you my Special Friend, I so miss you.
All our Love, Maria & Tony XXOO 🙏

“ Our dear friend Kathy, your smile would light up a room and your eyes would twinkle like stars. Paul and I share many fond and beautiful memories that we will never forget. Thirty years of friendship will always be treasured. Our memories of great times together will remain in our hearts forever. One thing my friend I hope you get to Jackson's soon and enjoy all the whip cream you want!

Until we meet again...love you always our precious Kathy.
