“ *Nan,
I often think of you in challenging moments or moments when I'd give anything to hear your voice. I don't think words will ever be enough to let you know how much you meant to me. I look at Lily and Colin and pray each day I can be half as amazing as you were. You would of loved their spirit and energy. Thank you for being everything to me! I love you so much!*

“ So sorry Cullen and girls to learn of your mother's passing. She was such a lovely lady and had such a great laugh. We remember you all from Maine when the kids were all growing up and all their adventures. Enjoyed our time with you in Maine and our visit to PA. Our thoughts are with you all. With love, Jane & Jim

“ Uncle Cullen, Maureen, Colleen and Eileen, We have been thinking of you with love every day. For our whole extended family, we cherish the memories of a very special aunt, sister, mother, grandmother, and wife. Living in the next town over when we were young meant we got to share a lot of family memories, and experience a lot of growing up together. Our family gatherings were full of humor, both the understated and laugh out loud kind. They were also full of learning all about who we were and how to relate to the world as a family, and it is nice to reflect back on that. May the memories of Aunt Kathy be as wonderful as the person who created them. Love, Lisa

“ Cullen, Maureen, Colleen, Eileen and extended family, we are so very sorry for your loss. Kathy was like a second mother to us Van Zandt boys going way back to the Ocean View Harbor days, helping my mother out. Your family has been there for my mother and us longer than anyone we've known. Anytime, we came to visit my mother, in Florida, Kathy made us feel welcome and at home. We've always taken peace in the fact that you guys are down in Florida with my mother and the only ones we've trusted, over the years. She (and we've) has truly lost one of her best lifelong friends. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Love, Mark and Kim Van Zandt

“For what is it to die but to stand naked in the wind and to melt into the sun? And what is to cease breathing, but to free the breath from its restless tides, that it may RISE AND EXPAND AND SEEK GOD UNENCUMBERED? Only when you drink from the river of silence shall you indeed sing. And WHEN YOU HAVE REACHED THE MOUNTAINTOP, then you shall begin to climb. And when the earth shall claim your limbs, THEN SHALL YOU TRULY DANCE. ~Kahlil Gibran~ I had a feeling you would like this Mom ~ I can see you dancing effortlessly forever. Love, Maureen

“ And now, is it too late to say How you made my life so different in your quiet way I can see the joy in simple things A sunlit sky and all the songs we used to sing. For all the times you closed your eyes Allowing me to stumble or be surprised By life, with all its twists and turns I made mistakes, you always knew that I would learn. And when I left, it's you who stayed You always knew that I'd come home again, In the end, you are my one true friend. Though love may break, it never dies It changes shape, through changing eyes What I denied, I now can see You always were the light inside of me. I love you Mom...
