“ I met Kathleen when I was a teenager when her and my mother became friends. She had such a beautiful smile and the most unique laugh, it was contagious. No matter what you could find Kathleen in a crowd. She would do her best to get a smile or a laugh out of you. She was a joy to be around. I will always remember the good and crazy times. She will be missed by all.

*Sending my deepest condolences to her family and friends.
Kathleen my not be here physically but she will live on in our hearts.*
