Obituary of Kathryn Proffitt

Kathryn "Kathy" McClain Proffitt, of Leesburg, FL joined Jesus and his angels in a joyous reception in Heaven on July 20, 2012. In May she celebrated her 77th birthday. Kathy is survived by her husband of 57 years, Bill, her daughter, Meloni of Clermont, and son Skip, of Winter Garden. She is also survived by three granddaughters, Amy, Krissy and McKenna, a grandson, Connor, two great-grandchildren Savannah and Cameron and her brother Henry who resides near Charlotte, NC. Both Kathy and Bill were born and attended school near Asheville, NC, and Kathy went on to attend Wake Forest University. Kathy and Bill were married in 1955 and raised their family in NC prior to 1980 when they moved to Florida. Kathy was a licensed Real Estate Agent and Broker she flourished in her business until retiring to the Plantation of Leesburg in 1996. Kathy was a wonderful wife, mother and neighbor and excelled in many of the various activities including golf and dancing. She was deeply dedicated and involved in her church, the Southpointe Baptist Fellowship. Memorial Services will be held Wednesday, July 25th at 2 pm at Southpointe Baptist Fellowship, Leesburg with Pastor Ron Cook officiating. In lieu of flowers the family requests memorials be made to Cornerstone Hospice Foundation, Mike Conley House, 2100 Oakley Seaver Rd. Clermont, FL 34711.
