“ Believe's that Angel's walk among us. They may be a friend or family member that you loved and lost. In times of need they hold our hands and wipe our tear's. They watch over us and guide us. You might not be lucky enough to see them, or hear them, but you just might. Never fear, for they are always near. The bon...ds of Love can never be broken, even in death, that connection will always be there. Kathy, you are an Angel now, watch over your family, they Love you and Miss you dearly.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you all. I will always remember Kathy's bubbly persona. She is with Linda now and has eternal life. She was funloving and lived life to his fullest. I hope and pray that her family finds strength in that.

“ Nice picture Kathy. I remember you were really funny & you were always laughing, I was young the last time I seen you (awake) so I don't remember much else. I thought my birthday card from you was awesome though, but thats more of an inside joke. :) I know that when my mom & I want to see you in the hospital, you were surrounded by so many people that you were never alone. Your children slept in the parking lot waiting to hear something, anything & no matter what everyone was hoping for the best. It broke my heart to see them like that & I know you were somewhere watching wanting to wrap your arms around us & tell us that it was going to be ok. You are definitely missed, but you're loved even more than that... we'll meet again soon. Rest in Peace Kathy.
