“ I am very sorry for your loss. Words cannot express the grief that you must feel. The pain is very deep. 1 Corinthians 15:26 says that death, which is our enemy, will be brought to nothing. And as for our loved ones who have died, Jesus said at John 5:28, 29 "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice, and be be resurrected to life.

“ Dear
My name is Winter. I wanted to give my condolences to you and your family for the loss of this dear one. It was a well written obituary and such a pretty picture. It made me want to know her. The account found at John 11:39-44 brings me great comfort by what Jesus did for Lazarus. Christ promised to do the same for others at John 5:28-29. My prayer is that God gives you the same comfort by means of His Word and promises. I am sorry.

“ My husband and I met Kellie at Bonefish , we are in our 70's not all waitresses and bartenders treat seniors as respectfully as Kellie treated us . Kellie had many conversations with us mostly about her family and the love they had for each other. She confided many things with us and asked for our opinion often . My husband and I would have traded places with her that awful night in a heartbeat if it meant she could still be living her life to its fullest as God has blessed us to be able to do.. Our prayers are with her family .. Pam and Frank Pytlak

“ I am so heartbroken to hear of Kellie's passing. I haven't seen her in years, but she always had the most beautiful spirit about her when she was younger, which I am sure was still there. Debbie, please know you and your family will be in my prayers forever because I can't imagine the pain will ever go away.

“ My heart felt condolences going out to Johnnie and Debbie. I did not know Kellie but I am sure she was a delightful young lady. I know what it is like to lose a close member of the family. God has a plan and she is part of it.

"FOR GOD SO LOVED THE WORLD THAT HE GAVE HIS ONLY BEGOTTEN SON, THAT WHOEVER BELIEVES IN HIM SHALL NOT PERISH BUT HAVE ETERNAL LIFE."

John 3:16 (NASB)

May the Lord bless and keep her for ever.
