“ I will miss Ken very much. I have always enjoyed being around him. He had a very level head and I was fortunate to have him share his thoughts with me. I will continue rooting for the Phillies but will miss the sharing of ups and downs with him. I enjoyed the little game we played of me putting the flag up late at night when the Phillies won and Ken looking for it first thing in the morning.

“ Ken, we will miss you tremendously. We will miss your laughter and sense of humor especially the funny comments you interjected when Terry and I spoke on the phone. We feel so grateful to have been able to share in your friendship and love. Do they have golf in heaven?

“ I met Ken for the first time 6 years ago and liked him right away. At that time I tried to tell him about Jesus. You know the result. About 5 mos. ago I met him at the mail box and asked how he was doing and he said he was truly blessed. After a brief conversation I can say he is with Jesus now. PTL Marvin
