“ My deepest condolences go out to the family. I didn't have the pleasure of knowing Mr. Cox, but I know he was a great man because of the wonderful stories his daughter, Susan,has shared with me. I know from those stories and his picture that he was a mighty man of God, full of love for others. I know he will be greatly missed and his legacy will live on through his children and grandchildren. I am praying peace over the family. God Bless

“ Having a day to reflect I want to thank God for my eyes that saw him smile, my ears that heard him laugh, my arms that held him when he needed me and my legs to walk the many golf courses we played. I thank God I was able to learn how to live, love and cherish family from such a great man. You will be missed and your legacy will be an inspiration for many generations. Love you,

“ Dear Pat: We were saddened to learn of Ken's death from Tim this AM. While we only met several times both Andrew and I were impressed by his kindness and steadiness as well as his sense of fairness and common sense. I know that he will be missed by you, his children and grandchildren. I hope that you take comfort in knowing that his suffering is over and his life was full of love, family and professional and personal achievement. Our thoughts are with you and your family, Joanne and Andrew Cook

“ Dear Susan My prayers are with you and your family as you celebrate your father's life. I know he was a very special human being because of the entertaining & tender stories about him you fondly shared with me. He fought a good fight and has now laid hold to eternal life. You are a precious friend to me, Susan, and I will remember you & your family in my thoughts and prayers! May the depth of your faith & love of those sharing this loss comfort you. God is our refuge & strength--Psalm 46:1 With sympathy & prayers, Sara & Cliff
