“ For 15 years we spent our winters with Ken and Susan as our next door neighbors. We came to know Ken well. He was a man dedicated to life, patriotism, and the right way. His opinions were always worth considering. Whether for the garden, for cars, and even where to purchase things. He was one of a kind, loved his wife and his life, and steadfastly took care of them. He rightfully prided himself for being a Marine. Ken had an indestructible spirit. He was always on top of things, energetic, and always watchful. He will really be missed.
