“ Kenny was our oldest son. He could fix anything. Every time any thing broke, we would ask Kenny to fix it. Of course he would. He told us after he found out that he had cancer that he could lick any thing he tried to do, but this is the only thing that will get him. We will miss him so much, it hurts so much that he had to go so young. But only GOD knows why. He is in a better place. We will get to see him again someday. We love you, Kenny, Your Mama & Daddy
