

KIMBERLY WILSON

October 17, 1964 - December 30, 2010

Obituary of KIMBERLY WILSON

Kimberly Jo Kessler Wilson residing in Umatilla, FL passed away Thursday, December 30, 2010. She was born October 17, 1964 in Hammond, IN. Kimberly attended school in Lowell, IN and Gwinn, MI from which she graduated. She moved to Florida in 1984. Kimberly is survived by her son, Joshua Wilson of Orlando, FL; mother and stepfather: Linda and Karl (Joe) Karlsson, Canton, NC; father and stepmother: Kenneth and Nada Kessler, Ostego, MI; sister: Kristine Adams, Umatilla, FL; stepbrother: Scott Doelling, Columbus, OH; nieces: Brittany Adams and Lainey Doelling; nephew: Justin Adams. Kimberly was a member of the First Presbyterian Church in Eustis at which she played in the Handbell Choir and sang in the choir for many years. She volunteered for vacation bible school, children's choir and many other church activities. She also sewed and crafted special projects for the church. Kimberly was an active member and treasurer for the UHS Band Boosters. She had so many bright and funny ideas for raising monies for buying uniforms and instruments. So well loved was she that some of the band kids participated in a mock Macy's Day parade on Thanksgiving since she could not attend the real one in New York one of her dreams. Kimberly thought learning to tap dance in her forties would be exciting. There too, at Dance Depot she became a mentor and an inspiration to all dancers young and old. Kimberly loved to go to garage sales, take pictures and scrapbook, she was very skilled at sewing making beautiful items for family and friends. Kimberly will be dearly missed by so many people but her joy in life, her beautiful smile, her givingness and faith in God will be remembered by all.

“ On behalf of the Staff, Elders and Session of the First Presbyterian Church of Eustis, I want to offer my deepest sympathies to the Wilson family at this time of loss and grief. I also want to share the hope that each of us feels that we will one day see Kim face to face and spend eternity with her in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is the Resurrection and the Life. Kim was an inspiration to our church and to me. She will be sorely missed.
