“ Last Friday at One Fire I was grieving heavily, pouring out my heart to God. Tears streaming down my face....God gave me a vision of Kyle in his new position in heaven. His crown on his head, tambourine in hand, Dancing and shouting to God's glory with an energy and enthusiasm that we all knew him for and loved so well.

“ The first time we met I was in desperate need of prayers. Pastor John said "This is Kyle. He is a prayer Warrior." From that day forward we were friends. Through his example I learned to pray for people in the streets, stores, parks. He was a free giver of the Love of God....
