Wayne, it's still hard knowing you are gone. I watched you take your last breath, yet it's still hard. You are loved more than you ever knew. You touched many lives and left many memories. You will live on as long as we speak your name and share those memories. When you left us, you took a piece of us with you. It is my honor to have had you in my life for so many years, it is an honor to help carry you to your final resting place. Until we meet again my sweet Wayne, I will carry you in my heart. I love and miss you. Keep on being the "Checker King".
