“ Remembering my Uncle Larry as a good looking man and one with a great personality. Though we didn't see each other after he moved to Florida, we tried to keep in touch always. Uncle Larry will be sorely missed and I know Aunt Carole will be anxious to meet him again in Heaven. Love you.

“ Carol,
Our memories of moving to The Villages nearly 20 years ago will always include the wonderful neighborhood on Doria Lane. Larry was an integral part of the group and we always enjoyed his company. In many ways, he was a true gentleman--polite, considerate and ever cheerful.
He will be missed.
Our condolences,
Joe Sanchez and Sandy Ainsworth
