“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, it is at times difficult to receive the comfort we search for. In times like these I know I can find comfort in God's word. In John 5:28,29 He tells us " Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." As the God and Father of tender mercies, He wants you to find comfort in Him through prayer (2 Cor 1:3).

“ My sincere condolences to the family of Laura. May God's love be with you and ease your grief. Laura brought so many gifts to our life. We will never forget her. Although we were not blood sisters, I thought of her as my Sister. She touched the hearts of so many and gave more of herself than most people realized. Our family will miss her dearly.
