

Lawrence Gray King

April 3, 1937 - May 9, 2024

Lawrence Gray “Larry” King, aged 87, passed away peacefully in Leesburg, Florida on May 9th, 2024. Lawrence was born to Ernest and Annice King in Winter Haven, Florida on April 3rd, 1937.

He was a graduate of Leesburg High School and the University of Florida. He was always a die-hard UF fan.

Larry owned King Appraisal Services, a commercial and residential appraisal company on Dixie Avenue in Leesburg. Always a colorful character, Larry painted his office flamingo-pink. He was an active member of Morrison United Methodist Church and had a great love of central Florida and its beauty. An avid reader and animal lover, Larry is survived by his brother Dale King (Asheville, NC), son Lawrence Tracy King (wife, Amy), Randy King (husband, Klavdi), and Sam King (wife, Leslie); grandchildren Tucker King, Maddie Roberts, Stephanie King, Lacie King, Emily King, Evan King and great grandchild Ruby Roberts.

Friends and family will gather at 11am on June 1st, 2024 at Beyers Funeral Chapel in Leesburg to celebrate his life. A graveside service at Hillcrest Memorial Gardens in Leesburg will follow. Casual dress is requested for attendees in keeping with Larry’s lifestyle. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests a donation to St Jude’s Children’s Research Hospital (www.stjude.or
