

Lawrence R. Lombardi

June 17, 1929 - April 28, 2018

Lawrence R. Lombardi, age 88, of The Villages, in Lady Lake, Florida died on April 28, 2018. He was born on June 17, 1929 in Newton, Massachusetts. He was educated at Newton High School, where he played football, basketball and baseball. Later, he played semi-professional football and baseball for the Waban Indians.

He served his country in the United States Air Force and was a Korean War Veteran. He was based at McDill Air Force Base in Tampa, FL, where he played shortstop on the Air Force baseball team and played in front of his fellow troops. He enjoyed being a member of the American Legion, Post 347, for the past 23 years.

He was preceded in death by his wife of 58 years, Hortense ("Ann") Lydia (DiMatteo) Lombardi.

He is survived by his younger sister, Joanne, and her husband, Wallace Parker, of Vero Beach, FL; three children, including two daughters, Lauri Ann, and her husband, Bruce Leavitt of Raymond, NH and Joan Lombardi of Lynnfield, MA, and one son, Donald P. Lombardi, MD of San Diego, CA. He has three grandchildren, including Andrew Leavitt of Raymond, NH, and Sofia and Marco Lombardi of San Diego.

He and his wife enjoyed living in The Villages for 33 years, where he was an avid golfer. He and his wife loved to dance, and he loved to sing. He was a loving son, brother, husband, father and grandfather.

Tribute Wall

JK

“ Loss leaves us empty.. but learn not to close your heart and mind in grief. Allow life to replenish you, when sorrow comes it seems impossible but new joys wait to fill the void. With heartfelt prayers

Jean Lombardi and Cori Konowitz - July 03, 2018 at 10:31 AM