Obituary of Lawrence Maesen

Lawrence "Larry" Edward Maesen

Larry Maesen died Wednesday, April 3, 2013, after a short and courageous battle with brain cancer. He was born on April 19, 1945 to August and Wilhelmina Maesen in Freeport, NY. Until recently he lived in Marietta, Ga. He was a CPA with Bell South in their offices in downtown Atlanta. He loved photography, fishing, playing chess and growing roses. He was the proud founder of a chess club in Cobb County Georgia. He is survived by his brothers, William Maesen(Carol Lee), Peter Maesen(Susan), and his sisters, Doreen Gould(Dennis) and Diane Coe(Eric). He was uncle to 13 nieces and nephews and 4 great niece and nephews. Larry's dry wit kept us laughing when times seemed desperate for him. There will be a private memorial service. To show your appreciation of his life you may give to a charity of your choice.

“ August 13, 2013 Larry and I worked together as auditors for Southern Bell in Miami (1974-1975). We later transferred to the External Affairs department where we did auditing of independent telephone companies throughout Florida (1976-1980). We lost touch when I transferred to AT&T - Atlanta in 1983. Larry and I spent a lot of time together. He was a sincere friend and I came to know and love him as a brother. My deepest condolences to all his family. Len Norwillo
