December 2, 1947 - November 21, 2014

Obituary of Lee Poole

Lee passed away peacefully on November, 21st 2014, at his farm in Ft. McCoy, Fl. He was born on December 2nd, 1947, and left behind his cherished companion, Nancy Cini, whose abiding care was of great comfort to him. He also had one daughter, Maranda, and three grandsons.

After serving two tours of duty in Vietnam, Lee returned to Florida and eventually settled on nine beautiful acres in Ft. McCoy, where he rescued "Cappy" - a five gaited Amish buggy horse, and lovingly restored him to his natural magnificence. ("Cappy" now lives with a trusted friend and two other companion horses.) Lee had a rare intuitive gift, seeing beyond the present moment, with an uncanny ability to size up a person's character or situation. He became a mentor and spiritual guide to friends and strangers alike and, as a gifted hunter and fisherman, Lee freely tutored those who sought his knowledge and skills. Lee loved and appreciated his musician friends, and will be remembered as our wounded healer, whose generous spirit, faith and friendship became his music. Lee is missed but remains firmly embedded in the hearts of those who were privileged to have him in their lives. Online condolences may be left at <http://www.beyersfuneralhome.com> or you may send your condolences to: Nancy Cini, P.O. Box 117, Ft. McCoy, FL 32134-

0117. Arrangements entrusted to Beyers Funeral Home, Leesburg, FL.

“ You have always been in the forefront of my thoughts and in my heart. I am brokenhearted that just as I got the chance to get to know you, you were taken from away. I finally felt like we had some sort of relationship and then it was gone just as quickly as it began. The circumstances of our last conversation were unfortunate but I rest assured that you now know the truth. All I ever wanted was my Daddy. We didn't always see eye to eye, in fact, we didn't see eye to eye on just about anything but I know that I have a lot of the traits that you also had. I hope that wherever you are, you have finally found peace. I am getting there and sometimes, I even feel your presence. Love, Maranda

“ Hello. Just wanted you to know that Lee was a part of my family's life for a number of years. He was a good friend to my brother Bill (now deceased) and a friend to talk to for me. I hadn't heard from/about him in years, but wanted you to know that I sadly read of his passing. We went to high school together and I know he will be missed. My sincere sympathy to you, Nancy.
