Obituary of Leigh Wilson

Leigh Alan Wilson, of Harbor Hills Country Club, passed away on Sunday, August 9, 2015 at the age of 78. He died at Cornerstone Hospice after years of struggling with the disease of Alzheimer's. He will be missed by all who knew him. He spent most of his adult years as the Sales and Marketing Director of exclusive Country Club Communities throughout Florida and the Carolinas which included the Polo Club of Boca Raton and The Cliffs of Glassy Mountain in South Carolina.

His acceptance into the Ivy League Brown University was formed as a young adult when he attended Classical High School in Springfield Mass. where he excelled in sports and music and was highly involved in the YMCA programs. During his life at Brown he was a proud member of the acapella singing group called "The Jabberwocks" and graduated in 1958. He went on to join the Merchant Marines and after his duty continued his business education at Northwestern University.

He is survived by his wife of twenty-five years, Janice , and his two sisters, Lynn Coy and Nita Romesberg, his three children; John, Genevieve and Christopher and six grandchildren; A.J., Kevin, Meagan, Jamie, Patrick and Kenny.

The family will be getting together for a private celebration of his life. Memorial donations may be given to Cornerstone Hospice, 601 Casa Bella, The Villages, FL 32162 and are always appreciated.
