“ Farewell cousin Leroy, we will miss you here on this earth. I regret not going with you on one of your "shrimping" adventures in the Gulf! I'll have to confess that I had some misgivings about rough seas and getting back by backstroke, not four stroke! After looking over our Miley home place after you had completely rebuilt and remodeled, I was taken back by the quality of all the workmanship. You were indeed a man of quality. Grandpa William and Myra would have been proud to see their old house transformed. I always admired the fact that you were not one to speak unnecessarily or bable on. You always seemed to think, measure your words, and thus usually had something meaningful to say. I envy the reunion you are now enjoying with all those who have gone on before you to the other side. Praise God for the Christian heritage we Mileys have through generations of faithful parents who taught their children of the saving Grace of our saviour! Rest in Peace Cuz, Mike
