“ Linda and family, I was so saddened to hear the news of Les passing. I've know both of you for yrs through my brother Tom. He was always pleasant to be around . He was kind, caring, and a good conversationalist. I always enjoyed talking with him. Linda, I know you two were together for yrs and were inseparable. May you continue to have the strength and support of others to get you through this difficult time. May you be guided along in your journey, with love, hope, and faith. Always know your not alone. Les will always be with you in spirit. Take Care, Blessings and Peace to you. Love, Angela Danduono (Tom's sister)

“ I'm so sorry I couldn't be there for Linda and Les's family and friends on this very sad occasion. My heart breaks for you all. Les was a very, very special man who will be sadly missed.

Les fought a very tough battle right to the very end due to having the support of his wife Linda by his side. He will always be my Hero!

Rest in Peace Les.

Linda you know where I am whenever you need me, lots of love, your Sister Karen xox

“ Even when we know it's coming and there's time to say goodbye, loss is never easy. May the memories you made with your beloved husband Les over the years and during his final days help you find peace. Sending you love and light and wishes for brighter days.

Even though we don't know each other well, remember I am but a phone call away.

“ Linda, Scott, Dawn, and Nick, words cannot convey how deeply sorry I am. Everyone will miss the joy and love that Les gave to countless people who he encountered. He had that gift to make people feel comfortable so that they could forget about life's problems just for a while. He made everyone feel special. There wasn't anyone that Les didn't talk to. What a gift. When Les made his way to Clearwater nearly 30 years ago, he blossomed into the fun-loving person that we all knew. He became a celebrity on the beach as everyone gravitated towards Les. People would stop in the Beach Print Shack to get advice or catch up on the local happenings. Les had a great ear, and everyone loved being his friend and in his company. The song "Red Red Wine," says "Red red wine, you make feel fine.", it wasn't the red wine that made us feel fine; it was Les that made us all feel fine.
