Obituary of Lillian Kohlus

Mrs. Lillian W. Kohlus, 95, died at 9:45 AM, Tuesday, September 27, 2011 at The Lane Purcell Hospice House, Sumterville, FL. Mrs. Kohlus was born in New York City and moved to Leesburg in 1994 from Port St. Lucie via Lady Lake. Mrs. Kohlus enjoyed opera, classical music, reading/Braille, listening to audio books and loved her church. She easily made friends at her church and Lake Port Square. She was a good mother to her children. Her greatest love was her family. Mrs. Kohlus was an executive secretary for a banking firm in New York while married to her husband, John Wilson. After John's death, she married a wonderful man named Norman(Boots)Kohlus, a charter boat captain from Montauk, Long Island, NY. She dearly loved the family he brought to her life.

Survivors include her son, William Wilson of Lady Lake, FL; two stepsons, Barry and David Kohlus of Montauk, L.I., NY; three stepdaughters, Susan Kah of Hollywood, FL, Sandra Faul of Burlington,VT and Betsey Kohlus of Stuart, FL; eight grandchildren, twelve great grandchildren and one great great grandchild.

“ It was wonderful to talk to Lillian on the phone, we had many great conversations. She had so much family history to leave. although separated by miles, I thought of her often.
