“ Hey Lil Party time on E street. We will be there. Such fun times at PPP with all the gang there. Most of you are now together with a few of us still hanging on. Think of Blaze and her pups and how much fun we had with that unexpected litter. You will always be remembered in so many ways such as the French lady at the KOA park in Maine when you and I shuffled the three kids through the shower and then we all sat around the fire and had a wonderful time. So many things remind me of you, all good stuff like the lobster for Mothers Day and the spontaneous cookouts on E street. Safe journey home Lillian, i will always remember you with love and fond memories. Till we meet again, leave the light on. Luv-n-stuf DeDe XXOO
