“ Since my own grandmother died when I was young, I always looked upon my Great Aunt Lil as my very own "stand-in" grandmother figure. She was the link to so many wonderful stories about my Grandma, Bubba, Uncle Larry and Mom growing up in Monroe. I will remember fondly all the wonderful memories that were created visiting her and Uncle Morrie every summer in Alpena. She was a wonderful person, full of sass and spice. She was devoted to her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Her home was usually adorned with pictures and her fridge usually held a mountain full of crayon drawings from the grandkids that she couldn't bear to ever throw away. No matter what time of the day, Aunt Lil would always make sure to keep her fridge stocked with deli meats, fruit, veggies....and a typical lunch would turn into a full course meal. I always loved the banter that went back and forth between Aunt Lil and Uncle Morrie when I was growing up...a true "ma and pa" love affair. She was loved....and loved by many people. I will miss her dearly!!! Jeremy, Erin and Aubrey Boyd
